

Courses

High Impact Teachers reserves the right to alter any of the arrangements for courses as stated in this program, either before or during the course and this may include cancelling or terminating a course.

If you cancel a course outside the 21 day period, 100% of the course fee will be returned to you. If you cancel within 21 days of the course date, you forfeit the amount of the course fee. Any refunds due to you or your school will be made by EFT within 14 days of the notice of cancellation.

Course Cancellation

High Impact Teachers reserves the right to cancel any scheduled courses. In the unusual event that a course is cancelled, participants will be given the option to complete the course online (if available) or receive a credit voucher for the course cost. Credit vouchers can be used for re-booking purposes when future courses become available. High Impact Teachers will not refund travel, accommodation or other expenses incurred in connection with the cancelled course. Registrants should bear this in mind when making travel arrangements.
